

Race, Poverty and Media Justice Institute Youth in Media Programming*

*This programming is open to all youth; however for those whose family is struggling with poverty POOR offers a stipend to cover the cost of transportation to and from class, as well as for time spent participating in classes. Please complete the application and send to deeandtiny@poormagazine.org

Name:		Age:
Phone Number:	Email Address:
Grade Level:	School:
Have you ever been involved in activism before? If yes, what?
Have you ever written any stories or articles before? (If yes please list when and what) Why do you want to become a media maker?
Have you had any experience with computers? (If yes, please list which programs)
What is your experience with poverty?
Do you consider yourself poor? Please explain.
What is your schedule?
When are you available? _		